

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2355 - SB 2217

January 24, 2012

SUMMARY OF BILL: Eliminates the requirement that the Chief Procurement Officer must develop a transition plan and central process for the disposal of all goods and services by the state. Requires that credit card payments be accepted for purchases of surplus state property.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- According to the Department of General Services (TDGS), oversight of surplus property will shift from the Chief Procurement Officer to the Commissioner.
- According to TDGS, the purchaser of surplus property will pay any credit card company fees.
- Therefore, the impact to state government is not significant.
